GLASGOW MISSOURI. Thursday Morning, November 13, 1856. Look for the X.

A cross (the X) immediately before the name, signifies that the time paid for has expired.

The Result. For Buchanan.—Pennsylvania, Indiana, New Jersey, Virginia, Georgia, North Carolina, South Carolina, Alabama, Mississippi, Kentucky, Tennessee, Louisiana, Missouri, Illinois, Texas, Delaware, Florida, Arkansas, and no doubt California—173.

For Fremont.—New York, Ohio, Maine, Vermont, New Hampshire, Rhode Island, Connecticut, Massachusetts, Michigan, Iowa and Wisconsin—115.

For Fillmore.—Maryland, 8. Necessary to elect, 149. Buchanan's Majority, 24.

This is the result of the recent Presidential election. We submit it without comment, and in sorrow—for we greatly fear sectional troubles have begun, with the election of Buchanan. Particulars will be given hereafter, when the vote in detail is received.

ANSWERS.—If you want a good likeness of yourself or friends, call on Mr. HOWELL, whose advertisement is in another column. He has the best of recommendations—his own work.

Saline gave Fillmore a handsome majority, and so did Grundy county.

SALINE MAIL.—We understand the Saline mail failed last week. The driver crossed the mail bags at Cambridge, and returned. The wind prevented the large boat from crossing, at Cambridge, though the ferry at this place was busy all day. We hope the post-masters will look into this, and see that the contractor does his duty.

There was a riot in Baltimore, election day, in which four were killed and fourteen mortally wounded.

THANKSGIVING.—The Governors of the following States, have fixed the 20th day of this month as Thanksgiving Day: Missouri, New York, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Maryland, Maine, Vermont, New Hampshire, and Connecticut; and it is probable that the same day will be observed in every State.

The vote of Missouri in 1852 for President stood: Pierce 33,353; Scott 29,962. Pierce's majority 3,391.

In 1852 FRANKLIN Pierce received 254 electoral votes, and WINFIELD SCOTT 42. The aggregate vote in that year stood: Franklin Pierce 1,607,723; Winfield Scott 1,355,134; John P. Hale 155,440.

Independently of the above, Daniel Webster (Union Whig) received 2,124 votes in the free States and 5,302 in the slave States; Geo. M. Troup (State rights) 2,300 votes in Alabama and Georgia; William Goodell (Abolition) 73 votes in New York; Jacob Broome (Native) 2,485 votes in Pennsylvania and New Jersey.

Official vote of Charleston for President. Buchanan 559; Fillmore 440.

For Circuit Attorney.—Griffin 692; Palmer 287; Collier 114.

The aggregate vote for Governor, in this county, at the August election, was 1272.

The aggregate vote for President on Tuesday, was 999. There was a falling off in the vote of Tuesday of 273 less than in August.

Folk's majority over Ewing, in this county, was 207; Buchanan's majority over Fillmore is 119—a gain for Fillmore of 88 votes.

HON. SAMUEL HOAR.—Eastern journals notice the death of Judge Hoar, of Concord, Massachusetts. He was distinguished as a very able member of the Massachusetts bar, highly respected for his social virtues, and the purity of his private life, but better known to the country, as the Commissioner from Massachusetts to South Carolina, to argue before the Courts of the latter State, the constitutionality of the statute, authorizing the detention and imprisonment, of free blacks entering the ports of the States from Massachusetts and other States of the North.

We see it stated that Senator Sumner, of Massachusetts, declines a re-election, and that Mr. Burlingame is spoken of as his successor.

HON. JOHN M. CLAYTON is dead.

ELECTION IN AUDRAIN.—We are just in possession of the official vote of Audrain. The vote for Representative which was a tie last August and run over between Hardin (A.) and Tinsley (D.) is a tie vote again. One vote for Tinsley (D.) being an idiot who has a guardian. The following is the vote:

Fillmore 565; Buchanan 521. For Representative, Hardin (A.) 479; Tinsley (D.) 480.

HAIR STORM IN EUROPE.—Mr. L. Wolfstein gives us, from a private letter, an account of a hair storm, on the 14th of August, which covered an extent of country 80 miles wide, passing the State of Prussia, course from west to north. Crops, except potatoes, were totally ruined, and many families left in great distress. Pieces of hair from 4 to 16 inches fell. The following towns and cities, suffered: Roden, Wethen, Ossenford, Doessel, Luigener, Corbecke, Borgentreich, Bahne, Muddenhagen, Marode, Deisel, Drendelbuhg, Helmschouster, and so on in the State of Hanover.

Valuable Land for Sale.

We are requested to say that Capt. Jas. E. Boudin offers for sale all of his lands in this State, lying chiefly in Howard, Saline, Pettis, Henry, St. Clair and Benton counties. These lands are of the best in the different counties; some are improved, some unimproved. For particulars, apply to Jas. L. Boudin, Howard county, or D. W. Boudin of Pettis.

St. Louis Market—8th. Hemp—$163 to $190. Wheat—$1.11 to $1.22. Corn—46 to 48 cents. Hides—17 1/2 cents. Whiskey—28 1/2 cents.

The river is in fair fall stage, and boats are making good time, everything considered.

The man who fails to read advertisements, loses half the value of his paper.

The friends of Fillmore in St. Louis, seem to be highly elated at giving that distinguished gentleman such a handsome majority. They have redeemed the city from the rule of Black Republicanism.

The Black Republicans of the North talk of standing by Fremont for the next Presidential election.

Don't give up friends. Recollect we have lived under the Pierce administration. Buchanan's will no doubt be a little worse, but then as we are in the way of it, we can bear a little affliction, four years—when our troubles will cease, and the democracy be driven into the sea.

At the commencement of the present year, there were in the United States about 22,600 miles of railroad, employing 5,000 locomotives. It is estimated that these locomotives consume between four and five millions cords of wood annually, the product of at least 100,000 acres of woodland.

Boon's Lick Institute.—This Institution is now in successful operation, and we doubt not will be liberally sustained by the people of that section. It is an excellent locality for a good school, and we understand is in good hands. We rejoice to see schools springing up in our county, and the day we trust, is not far distant when other localities that have been neglected, will start good Academies, and old Howard's sons and daughters, in every nook and corner, will have a school in their immediate vicinity.

FINE EGGS.—Mr. R. W. Biggs of this county, sold to Mr. Seibel of this place, the other day, four pairs, fourteen months old, which weighed, in the aggregate, fifteen hundred and eighteen pounds! What a bounty for hogs and Buchanan men!

An old bachelor gentleman was boasting that every rock was as familiar to him as the alphabet. A lady who was present declared that she knew a rock of which he was totally ignorant. "Name it, Madam," cried Coletus, in a rage. "It is rock the cradle, sir," she replied.

SOLES.—The self-sacrificing, and Union saving Buchanan men are already arranging for the spoils. Plunder will be the order of the day for four years more.

In Paris, ladies wear daggers at their girdles. In America, they wear them in their eyes.

Stick to some Pursuit.

There cannot be a greater error than to be frequently changing one's business. If any man will look around and notice who have got rich and who have not, out of those who have started in life with him, he will find that the successful have generally stuck to some one pursuit.

Two lawyers, for example, begin to practice at the same time. One devotes his whole mind to his profession; lays in slowly a stock of legal learning, and waits patiently, it may be for years, till he gains an opportunity to show his superiority. The other, tiring of slow work, dashes into politics. Generally at the end of twenty years, the latter will not be worth a penny, while the former will have a handsome practice, and count his tens of thousands bank stock or in mortgages.

Two clerks attain a majority simultaneously. One remains with his former employer, or at least in the same line of trade, at first on a small salary. The others think it ignominious to fill a subordinate position now that he has become a man, and accordingly starts in some other business on his own account, or undertakes a new firm in the old line of trade. Where does he end? Often in insolvency, rarely in riches. To this every merchant can testify.

A young man is bred a mechanic. He acquires a distaste to his trade, however; thinks it tedious way to get ahead, and sets out for the West or California. But in most cases the same restless, discontented, and speculative spirit which carried him away at first, renders continuous application at any one place irksome to him; and so he goes wandering about the world, a sort of semi-civilized Arab, really a vagrant in character, and sure to die in poverty. Meantime his fellow apprentice, who has stayed at home, practicing economy and working steadily at his trade, has grown comfortable in his circumstances, and is even, perhaps, a citizen of mark.

There are men of ability in every walk of life, who are notorious for never getting along. Usually it is because they never stick to any one business. Just when they have mastered one pursuit, and are on the point of making money they change it for another which they do not understand; and in a little while what little they are worth is lost forever. We know scores of such persons. Go where you will, you will generally find that the men who have failed in life are those who never stuck to one thing long. On the other hand, your prosperous man, nine times out of ten, has always stuck to one pursuit.

A Curious Incident. The fact we are about to relate has the very rare merit of truth combined with the pleasant excitement of the wonderful: so states the Philadelphia Evening Journal. Some time ago a friend of ours purchased a number of picture frames, tastefully made of acorns and handsomely stained and varnished, which he placed in his library at his country house. The ensuing season he and his family departed on a rather distant tour, and for some months the country house remained closed and untenanted. The season was an unusually damp one during their absence, and upon their return it was deemed advisable to have their rural homestead well aired and dried by constant fires in all the rooms before inhabiting it again. Orders to this effect were therefore dispatched, and the opening began under the direction of the old housekeeper. Window and door were flung wide open one after another, letting in the sunshine to mellowed walls and hangings, until the "house-elders" arrived at the library, when, as the first pair of shutters swung back, the breeze fluttered in and played in the walls with a sound as of rustling foliage, causing a universal and rather startled movement of eyes in the direction of the mysterious sound. That the astonishment of the gazers was by no means lessened when they beheld the cause of the rustling, our readers will easily credit when we inform them that several acorns on each picture frame had sprouted, and a grove of miniature oaks were gently waving their tiny boughs and fluttering their dark green leaflets around the majestic brows of Washington and Franklin, and Adams and a half dozen others of our venerated fathers of the republic. Nature herself had broken through her accustomed laws to crown these patriot heroes with her own wreaths of honor, and offer, even in her dying struggles, this beautiful tribute to their memory.

Now, is not this fact worth all the fables of Sheshaide or Swift a hundred times over? How THEY DO OF COURAGE IN KAMCHATKA.—The road to Kamchatka is hard on travel in Kamchatka. After a young man makes proposals to enter into the service of his intended father-in-law, when he proves agreeable, he is admitted to the trial "touch." The young woman is swathed up in leather thongs and put under the guard of some old woman. The suitor watches every opportunity of a slackened vigilance to salute her. The girl must resist in appearance at least, and therefore, cries out to summon her guards, who fall with fury upon the lover—tear his hair, scratch his face and act in violent opposition. The attempts of the lover are sometimes unsuccessful for months; but the moment the touch is achieved, the bride testifies her satisfaction by pronouncing "Ni, ni," (supposed to be the Kamchatkan for Ninny) in a soft and loving voice.

A thousand thanks to KILLBORN, of Adams' Express, for late papers.

Bad News from the Plains—Murder of Col. Babbitt Confirmed.

The arrival on Sunday evening, Oct. 26, of a train from Salt Lake, under command of Capt. W. J. Hawley, places beyond question the fact of the murder of Hon. A. W. Babbitt, Secretary of Utah Territory. From Mr. Hawley we obtain the following information:

Near the "Sweet Water" he met Messrs. Kimble and Ferguson. That is about 200 miles west of Fort Laramie, and 360 east of Salt Lake. He heard from them the rumor, and in order to get at the facts, he remained with Mr. Trist; the Indian Agent, for several days.

The Indians had come to the Fort and reported that 12 of them had attacked Col. Babbitt, while one of his men was away, and that Col. Babbitt had fired his double barreled gun and his revolver, one of the Indians crept behind the wagon and tomahawked the Colonel. Frank Rowland and Sunderland were killed. The Indians said the Col. fought like a grizzly bear.

When at Fort Kearny, Capt. Hawley learned that Maj. Wharton had in his possession the papers (including a draft of $8,000) and some of his hair. His watch was obtained by a Frenchman from the Indians. Altogether about 18 whites have been killed.

The Car train reports the crops in Utah as good. Wheat was selling at $1.00, and corn 75 cents, potatoes 60 cents, flour $3.50 per hundred. He met several Mormon hand-carried trains at Green river, 170 miles east of Salt Lake City, at Big Sandy, at Pacific Springs, and about 5 miles east of Fort Laramie, and one at Chimney Rock, 75 miles east of Laramie, a wagon train at Scott's Bluff, and several others. All in good health and spirits.

Col. Babbitt was well known in our community, was on his return from Washington to resume his duties as Secretary, had with him a valuable collection of books, astronomical instruments, and was supposed to have a large amount of money.

His loss is irreparable, and the Government should send at once a sufficient force to punish—yes, to exterminate this tribe who for the last three months have been murdering and plundering our emigrants. Mr. John Campbell, District Army and about twenty others came in the train with Captain Hawley.—[Council Bluffs Bugle.

Carriages and Buggies. We see that our old and worthy advertising friends, Messrs. Fallon & Wright, of St. Louis, came in for a full share of honors in the examination of the Mechanical Department on exhibition, at the recent St. Louis Fair. They have one of the most extensive factories in the West; and worthy business men whose reputation has long been established, and we would advise our South-west friends, who frequently visit St. Louis, to call and examine their factory, when visiting the city. We clip the following extract from the Republican of the 23d ult.

The Greenville (S. C.) Patriot, of Oct. 29, regretting the defeat of Col. Brokaw for the Senate, accounts for it in the following singular way:

"His zealous efforts in the cause of education, and the elevation of the poor, in a moral and social point of view, have proved his defeat."

What a satire on South Carolina politics.

DON'T BEAT OVER TROUBLE.—Man doubles the evils of fate by pondering over them—a scratch becomes a wound, a slight injury, a jest an insult, a small peril a great danger, and a slight sickness often ends in death, by brooding apprehensions.

A Southern View of Thanksgiving in the Northern States.

The Baltimore Sun alluding to the fact that Thursday, November 20th, has been fixed upon by most of the Governors of the Northern States for the annual Thanksgiving, asks: Where are the Governors of the States south of Maryland? The inquiry has provoked the following rather snappish reply from the Carolina Times:

"We are impressed that the Governors of the States south of Maryland are all at home and competent to decide for themselves when it will be proper to fix upon a day to offer up thanks to the Almighty for past blessings. The movement on the part of northern executives is no criterion for Southern men. We are subject to law, common and divine, and need

"No bleeding bird nor bleeding beast, Nor hyacinth buds, nor sparkling priest, Nor running brook, nor flood, nor sea, To wash a dim stain away."

"It is meet and proper that the miserable, sin-stricken, polluted, and ungodly population of the North should beg pardon for their black sins recorded, committed against God, their country and fellow men. As a generation of vipers, they ought to be warned to flee from wrath to come; yet we believe that the waters of Jordan, Alma and Pharpar would fail to wash them, and heal their leprosy, even though they were to dip seventy times seven. They have much to be forgiven, and we would advise them to pray often—pray long and pray loud. Baltimore, especially, ought to be covered with sackcloth and ashes."

These indebted to this office, for Job Work or Advertising, are respectfully and earnestly requested to call and settle their accounts.

PREMIUM PICTURES.

MR. W. B. HOWELL takes this mode of informing the ladies and gentlemen of this city, that he is here now for the purpose of taking Ambrotypes, Lithographs, and he feels confident by having the largest and finest Apparatus ever in the city, that he will place all who may feel willing to patronize him.

All who wish large pictures of themselves and family, would do well to call and procure them while they have a chance, as it is in many years before they have another opportunity of getting as large pictures.

Pictures taken from the smallest size to twelve inches length, and put up in frames to suit. Children taken from 1 to 3 seconds sitting.

Hear what the St. Joseph Cycle says of his work.

PREMIUM PICTURES.—At the late District Fair, Mr. W. B. HOWELL, of our city, received a premium for beautiful specimens of Ambrotypes, Daguerotypes, and Photographic pictures. This was an award well merited. Mr. Howell has triumphed in this beautiful art by the vigor of his own genius, and by the aid of the most perfect apparatus, without the aid of a tutor. The beautiful pictures exhibited by him at the Fair, were the admiration of every person who saw them. They were certainly as good as any specimens of the art we have seen, and we commend Mr. Howell to all who wish to secure first-class pictures.

Rooms over Taylor & White's Drug Store. Please call early, as his time in this place is so soon passing.

INTERESTING TO STOCK GROWERS.

I HAVE recently purchased in Kentucky, a thoroughly bred Stallion, and shall have him brought out to us soon as the Ohio river is navigable, and make a search with him (and) my residence, 5 miles west of Glasgow, on the Fayette road.

With his advice and assistance of some of the experienced horsemen in Kentucky, I think I have secured the best horse for the wants of this country, that can be found in the United States. He was sired by imported Boon, who was owned from his first race in 1825 to his last race in 1850, by those two celebrated members of the T. C. Col. Pool and Mr. Washington, and was considered the best four mile horse in England. For his Pedigree, the Public are referred to the T. C. Register; and for his past record, to the racing papers. Young Boon's dam was sired by Prince; Prince by Governor's Warhorse, and he by Sir Archibald.

So soon as Young Boon arrives, I will publish a pedigree complete, with the terms of service, &c., &c.

Young Boon is a beautiful Iron Grey, 16 hands of size, and 3 years old the 9th of May last.

He took the prize in Lexington, Ky., in Sept. 1851, the only Fair at which he has ever been exhibited.

I shall limit him the first season to 50 mares, and allow him to serve none but the best brood mares. JAMES O. SWINNEY. Nov. 13, 1856.

City Ordinances.

An Ordinance appropriating Money. Be it ordained by the Mayor and Councilmen of the city of Glasgow, That the following sum be, and the same is hereby appropriated, out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, To W. Approved Nov. 5, 1856. W. D. MATTHEWS, Mayor.

Boon's Lick Institute.

THIS undersigned having engaged the services of J. P. JENKS, Esq., as Principal, and MRS. JENKS, as Assistant, take pleasure in announcing to the public, that the first term of this School commenced on Monday the 27th of October, and they feel warranted in assuring the public, that those desiring to place their sons or daughters, under competent and faithful instruction will find it here. Mr. Jenks has been amongst us long enough to command the high reputation of a scholar, a gentleman, and an educator of fifteen years' experience; and we doubt not, that those who favor him with their patronage will find it greatly to their interest.

Instruction will be given in all the English branches, the Mathematics, and in the Roman and Greek Languages. The government of the school will be mild but firm. Pupils under his care will be treated as scholars, and morally accountable beings. An ample and well situated Hall, consisting of two apartments, will be occupied for the school. Boarding can be obtained in respectable families, reasonable rates. For terms of tuition, &c., please address the undersigned.
